ABOUT ME

I'm a Norwegian student currently living in LA, I came here as a student athlete and is part of the soccer program at the school. Along side with soccer I have passion for computer science and love working on personal projects when not studying.

Since I was a little kid I have always been fond of the computer and of all the opportunities and tools it offer. And I have spent countless hours learning new things online.

I'm a hobby photographer and video editor and have worked a lot with photoshop, lightroom and premiere pro.

I see myself as a quick learner, which comes from all the different hobbies I have had during the years and still have. I strive to become better at what I do every day.
